NB re: Weddings at St Mark's:

We are able to do a blessing that, for all intents and purposes, looks like a wedding, but it is not possible for Church of England clergy to preside at legal marriages in Italy. That may change at some point in the future, but at present it is not possible.

What we do, is, after the couple are married in a civil ceremony, and present to the priest their legal marriage document, there can be a service of blessing after the civil marriage. Most often, this service of blessing takes the form of the marriage rite itself, but with the relevant legal parts omitted as that is already completed by the civil registrar. So the normal introduction, readings, promises of betrothal, the marriage vows, prayers, nuptial blessing etc are all there, but it is not the legal ceremony.
